D.Sc. FINAL Oral Exam Committee Appointed

This form is used to declare a D.Sc. candidate's FINAL exam committee. The candidate must defend his or her dissertation during a final oral examination given by a committee nominated by the advisor and approved by either the School Dean of SEAS or the Dean or Department Chairperson, as well as the Chairperson of the student's previously appointed Doctoral Committee. The final exam committee normally consists of five Washington University faculty members---representing two or more departments, in addition to two ex officio members, the Dean of the Sever Graduate School, and the department (or program) Chair. The examining panel (i.e. committee members) must be appointed at least two weeks prior to the date on which the final exam is to be scheduled. A copy of this form must go to the Admissions Office as soon as the committee members are appointed, and the original gets routed to the Registrar's Office. Departments should retain a copy of all forms in the student's departmental file folder.
