

Engineering e-News

OCTOBER 2008

Across Disciplines.
Across the World.™

Home

For Students

For Faculty

For Staff

For Alumni

Stephen F. and Camilla T. Brauer Hall

Chancellor Mark S. Wrighton and the Board of Trustees invite you to a groundbreaking ceremony for the newest addition to the School of Engineering and Applied Science, Brauer Hall.

The School of Engineering's new building is scheduled for completion in 2010. It will bear the name of Camilla and Stephen Brauer.

Read More

Upcoming Events

Thu, Oct 23, 2008

EnCouncil Meeting

Fri, Oct 24, 2008

NSBE Campus-Wide Career Fair

Tue, Oct 28, 2008

Connection Series Seminar

Wed, Oct 29, 2008

New Engineering Building Groundbreaking Ceremony

View More Events

Contact EnCouncil

A new web page for students to easily submit comments and ideas to EnCouncil is available on our Web site. All messages will be sent directly to the EnCouncil executive board.

Read More

Research News

Biomedical Engineering Professor Earns $418,000 Grant

Assistant Professor Don Elbert will continue his research with a grant from the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute.

Professor Receives National Science Foundation Grant

Shirley Dyke received a four-year, $1,200,000 grant for her research.

Computer Science Professors Receive National Science Foundation Grants

Professor Gruija-Catalin Roman and Associate

35th Annual Engineers' Scholarship Dinner

With more than 160 scholarship donors to the School of Engineering and Applied Science this year, the school currently provides more than 50 percent of students with need and/or merit-based scholarships.

Jennifer Sisto speaks at the annual

View More News

Professor David Peters Says Baseball Head-First Slide is Quicker

Base running and base stealing would appear to be arts driven solely by a runner's speed, but there's more than mere gristle, bone and lung power to this facet of baseball - lots of mathematics and physics are at play.

Read More

Dean's Forum for Undergraduate Students

EnCouncil invites all Engineering undergraduate students to join Dean Sutera on Thursday, November 13 for a dean's forum. Students are invited to attend to share ideas and ask questions of the dean and other leaders in the School of Engineering.

RSVP now

Local and National Media Cover EnCouncil's Rock 'em, Sock 'em Robots

Members of EnCouncil showcased the popular red and blue robots live on the CBS Early Show with Maggie Rodriguez. The CBS Early Show broadcasted live from campus October 2 and 3 in preparation and response to the Vice Presidential Debate.

Read More & View Video

Do you know someone who may be interested in receiving this mail? Forward to a friend.

Do you wish to unsubscribe? Please send us a message.

Washington University in St. Louis, School of Engineering & Applied Science

One Brookings Drive, Box 1163, St. Louis, Missouri 63130

Office Location: Sever Hall, Room 105

Phone: (314) 935-6166